Michael Baxter with Aazura

An experienced photographer, Michael Baxter has been working with computers since he was 8, imprinted by a July 4, 1968 viewing of 2001: A Space Odyssey. On July 4, 2004, Michael was once again imprinted, this time by the “Belly Dance Vortex,” when he met dancer Michelle Joyce in the photo studio. Since then, he’s met many belly dancers and teachers, and has taken over a third of a million studio and festival dance photographs—literally terabytes of pictures. In 2006, Michael traveled to Istanbul and Beldi, Turkey to photograph dancers Michelle, Sandra, and Nadira while on tour. Michael has even taken belly dance classes to improve his photography by better understanding the dance movements and styles. Michael loves belly dancers; he believes that the art of The Dance emerges within every belly dancer uniquely and luminously, and that joyous artistic photos can come from capturing that inner light.
